

MRS. T. L. ROBERTSON DIED IN HOSPITAL

Beloved Woman Passed to Reward After Long Illness.

Lilla Griffin Robertson, wife of Mr. T. Lorton Robertson, died in the Columbia hospital on Tuesday evening, June 18, 1912, aged 43 years.

She had been a sufferer for five years and for the last two years bedridden. Mrs. Robertson was a daughter of E. M. Griffin, deceased, of Belton. She is survived by five brothers, R. L. Griffin, E. M. Griffin, J. P. Griffin of Westminster, F. H. Griffin, S. B. Griffin of Columbia, also William and Claude Brazale, of Belton, half brothers, and sisters Mrs. W. C. Lee and W. T. Brazale of Anderson. She is also survived by her husband, Mr. T. Lorton Robertson, and four children, one of whom is now in the Columbia hospital.

Her remains were laid to rest in the Dorchester church yard, two miles from Belton, the family burying ground. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. Frazier, of Anderson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church.

Her remains were carried from the hospital to the home of Mr. Fred Griffin, of Columbia, and from there to the home of F. P. Robertson, of Belton, and thence to the burying ground.

Mr. Lorton Robertson wishes to express his deepest thanks to the people of Belton for their courtesy and kindness in his bereavement, especially to Messrs. Hesakiah and D. A. Geer, who opened hotel and aided with lively during his stay there.

In the death of Mrs. Robertson we have sustained the loss of a good woman. She was patient in suffering, earnest, broad-minded and her Christian character and sweet disposition endeared her to all who knew her intimately. Hers was a labor of love indeed, and while her labors are ended the dear memories of her life still linger to encourage and to bless. She was a member of the Abbeville Presbyterian church.

Two of Mr. Lorton Robertson's children are with his brother, F. P. Robertson, of Belton, and two are in Columbia, one in the hospital.

Those attending the funeral from Abbeville were: Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Wham, Mr. W. G. Stevens and Jno. A. Cheek.

Many beautiful floral offerings were sent to Belton by friends of the deceased from Abbeville.

Personal Items—The Weekly Riddle for the Little Folks

Miss Martha and Miss Kate Creswell were the guests of Mrs. John McCaslan yesterday.

Little Lillian Creswell celebrated her birthday the 20th of June. This little girl says she has been enjoying beans and corn bread, but on her birthday mamma gave her cake and cream, which was very much enjoyed by her.

Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Creswell were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Young last Friday.

Miss Alma Creswell spent yesterday with Miss Cleo Creswell of Troy.

We are glad to say those who were on the sick list are improving some.

Mrs. Jane Wilson and grandson, Dan, from Bethiah, spent Monday with Mrs. John McCaslan.

Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Bowen and little Gladys were the guests of Mrs. Bowen and Misses Creswell yesterday.

Misses Mary and Maggie Young were the guests of Eva and Alma Young Saturday night. Come again, girls, we enjoyed your pleasant stay.

The Young Brothers are expected to soon start out thrashing. Will make a start this week if possible. Any one wishing their grain thrashed will please notify them, as they do good work, and will be glad to work for any one wishing them to do so.

Mr. J. S. McBride has the bag cotton. Hurrah for Uncle Mack! Look, girls.

Mr. J. C. Leard has the next and Mr. J. H. Drennan has the best corn we have seen.

Mr. Wylie Long dined with us yesterday.

Mrs. Belle Creswell and Lavinia Creswell pleasantly spent Monday with Mrs. Mary Creswell and Mrs. Maggie Talbert. Mrs. Keller and Mrs. Franklin were also their guests on that day.

The good Methodist members were disappointed Sabbath about their preaching, as the preacher did not get there. His auto gave out and he did not get all the way.

Next Sabbath is the fifth Sabbath, but our preacher said there would be service anyway at Long Cane, and I do think it would be so nice to see his good sermons in print. There are so many that are not able to go to church that would enjoy reading them so much. I think this would be real missionary work. We will ask our good preacher if we are right.

Mr. W. P. Durst from Greenwood passed through here last week in his auto en route to Abbeville.

We beg to say that it was Mr. J. E. Jones from Abbeville that called last week. However, Uncle Joe is a candidate and wishes all the votes he can get.

Little A. Z. Spence enjoyed the past week with Mrs. R. H. Beauford.

Little Gladys Bowen guessed the last riddle. It was honey.

The little folks seem to enjoy the little riddles very much, and we will ask them this time: What is the difference between a blind man and a sailor?

Fire, Wind-Storm and Lightning Insurance on County Property.

To those people living in the county who want old line fire insurance we will be glad to call on you and talk the matter over. We are in position to insure your dwelling, your barns, negro cabins, etc. against fire, wind-storm, lightning. Write, phone, or call.

FINE ATTRACTIONS FOR THEATRE

Mgr. Cheatham has just received word from his booking agency that his efforts to secure the appearance of the Aborn Opera Company in Abbeville have proved successful. The company will show here November 24th.

The Aborn Opera Company is one of the finest attractions on the road, and its repertoire includes the very best of the operas.

The artists composing this aggregation are all stars of the highest order, and their singing will be sure to please all so fortunate as to be present.

The company will render the ever delightful "Bohemian Girl" on their appearance here.

The Aborn people will carry this season six horses, a troupe of Arabs and two cars of scenery, and Manager Cheatham was forced to make the guarantee high in order to secure this performance.

Several other first-class attractions have already been booked, including "Forty-five Minutes From Broadway," "Mutt and Jeff," "The Rosary," and others.

HONORED GUESTS.

Come from the City of Colleges,
High Education and Morals.

Mr. R. E. Brownlee and his son, Ollie Brownlee, and Mr. Agnew Stevenson, came down from Due West last Monday when all of our people whose privilege it was to meet them, were glad to see our streets some of the best men of the city of colleges.

The young gentlemen are handsome specimens of true manhood. We have not begun to charge this up to them on account of their not being married, but we will keep tab on them hereafter.

Of Mr. Brownlee we have a little story which proves the erroneousness of the idea that poor boys, or young men if you better like the latter classification, should not marry. When Mr. R. C. Brownlee started out in life he had not a dollar. But he had a brave heart and steady hand. For two years he was salesman or book-keeper in a store. At the end of that time he told his sweetheart that he had in this world's goods only the savings of some two years' work. Making an honest confession of both his financial condition and the yearning of his heart, he submitted his fate to the best beloved girl on earth and told her if she would take him, that he was anxious to marry her, but being of a mercenary mind, and recognizing the true manhood in an honest heart, his proposition was accepted. Miss Kitty Bonner, daughter of the late Rev. I. L. Bonner, D. D. and young Robert C. Brownlee were then married. A number of children have come to them to bless and to make happy the hearts of the poor boy moneyless girl. Mr. Brownlee, we believe is now not only one of the best men in the town, but as he is perhaps the richest man in Due West. In his history, any idea that worthy young people should have money before their marriage is set at naught.

HAD SEVERE HEADACHES SEVEN YEARS

I have been subject to severe headaches for about seven years. My head would ache so badly at times that I could scarcely stand it. Doctors seemed to be unable to give me relief, though I tried several of them, and took many kinds of headache medicines and tablets. About a month or six weeks ago I tried Hunt's Lightning Oil, which gave me almost instant relief, and I am glad to say that I have been entirely free from those terrible headaches since. From my own experience I can say that Hunt's Lightning Oil is without an equal as a reliever of pain, and I only wish that I had used it several years ago.—Mrs. W. T. Dixon, Sherman, Texas.
